
Federal Hall

- Site where George Washington took his oath as the first president of the United States
- Location of the first congress and supreme court
- Includes multiple exhibits and visitors can take walking tours found on their website

Fraunces Tavern

- One of the oldest historical bars in NYC (built in 1719)
- Was once a popular place for founding fathers to visit
- George Washington gave a farewell speech to some of his officers in the tavern
- There is also a piano bar
- Still a bar but also has a museum focusing on its history

New York Historical Society Museum

- Oldest museum in NYC
- Lots of artifacts, including paintings of George Washington and his inauguration chair

- Rotating exhibits focusing on anything from the revolution to the civil war to Native American history

The Alice Austen House and Museum

- National designated site of LGBTQ+ history
- Alice Austen's house, she was a photographer and made major contributions to photographing the history of New York, including photographs of immigrant populations, Victorian women, nature, and architecture
- Austen, born in 1866 and passed away in 1952, lived in the home with her partner Gertrude Tate for 30 years
- Entrance fee required

Brooklyn Bridge

- Historic suspension bridge connecting Manhattan and Brooklyn, built in 1883
- First suspension bridge to use steel for its cable wire
- Longest suspension bridge in the world when it was built (1,595 feet)
- Designed by John A. Roebling
- National Historic Landmark